Curvebreakers is a Long Island educational consultancy specializing in standardized test prep. Curvebreakers provides a unique and individualized approach to test taking in that we teach the students not only how to take the standardized test, but also how to understand the tests down to the finest of details. Students learn how to break down questions from front to back and back to front, resulting in mastery level understanding. We engage students’ minds with our passion and excitement for improvement, and enable students to understand questions on their own - the key to success on standardized tests.

WHAT YOU GET FROM PARTNERING WITH CURVEBREAKERS

1. A customized and affordable program to fit your school’s needs. We can build out a program of SAT/ACT classes and test prep related events that is specific to your school and your individual needs as an institution.

2. We provide the highest quality tutors/instructors that have all scored in the 99th percentile. Each instructor is trained by our owner and staff in our methodologies, and is background checked to ensure the safety of your students.

3. A true partner. We are a partner in every sense of the word. From advising parents on SAT vs. ACT to making sure each program is a success, we will be there every step of the way.

ADDED BENEFITS INCLUDE:
- Local company with local ownership - we understand your community.
- Free SAT and ACT practice exams with diagnostic reports provided to each student.
- Support at school events on topics such as the SAT vs. ACT.
- Information sessions and training of teachers and counselors.
- Personal assistance with marketing - our marketing team will promote the courses, saving you time so you can focus on more important endeavors.
- We give back - a scholarship for a deserving student of your choice.

WHY PARTNER WITH CURVEBREAKERS?

When you choose Curvebreakers, you are truly getting a partnership. We provide all of the tools and work with you every step of the way. We will assist your organization in the marketing of the courses and in educating the parents. The results of this partnership will be more educated parents and students, and overall better SAT/ACT scores for your students.
Our approach is tried and true, yet still flexible to fit your needs. All programs held at your school will be specifically tailored for your school. Course length, price, and the inclusion of practice exams or other events are just some of the ways in which we can personalize our strategy to help your students be successful.

“Walking into Curvebreakers, everyone remembers who you are. It wasn’t like walking into an office. Everyone there knows one another, and they’re all friends. It was nice to have that supportive atmosphere when studying. The tutoring sessions didn’t feel like work, they felt like learning in a fun way. They were also very positive and encouraging.”

-Chloe R.  ACT Score: 36
The key with any SAT or ACT test prep is focus; students and parents want a program that will provide the right level of value for the time invested. Curvebreakers is always up to date on the newest changes to the test, skills required to do well, and teaching methodologies that simply work - without a long term commitment cycle. Our courses can be conducted in less than 2 months and can even fit in one week (Monday-Thursday). Take a look at how Curvebreakers measured up on the March 2018 SAT.

"Curvebreakers really focused on what I wanted to focus on so I love that it was one on one. I got to decide what we were going to work on that day. It was totally up to me and at my pace. That’s what I really needed because I know that I wouldn’t have been able to focus in a big group."

“My son attends Curvebreakers and is very happy with his 1:1 tutor. Nick matched him up with a man who he felt would work well with him. They clicked immediately. My son is prepping for the SAT test as well as getting subject tutoring. We have a scheduled time set weekly and they work from beginning to end. As the parent, I get session updates and I am informed of assigned work for the following session. We are both very pleased with Curvebreakers and would definitely recommend it to others.” - KERRY K.

“My daughter has done 2 sessions with Nick and he has brought her from 23 to a near 30 and now she is a contender to the colleges she prefers. Nick’s personality makes it easy for my daughter to be her best. I have recommended Nick to many moms and most responded, ‘You are so lucky to get him; he was booked when we tried!!!’ Thank you Curvebreakers!!!” - MARY P.

“Nick is great. Has lots of patience for both the students and the parents. I highly recommend Curvebreakers..... you will not be sorry!” - MARIE M.

Excellent experience with Nick. He worked with my daughter and determined a sensible game plan for getting through ACT testing. His calm positive demeanor relieved some of the stress associated with senior year. Thank you!

We have been very happy with Curvebreakers. Our daughter has shown significant improvement on her ACT scores. Brittany is AMAZING!!! Nick is professional, honest, and easy to work with. Highly recommend! - JACOLE B.
